1. Usage Rights

The images are licensed to you for personal and professional marketing use only. You may upload them to your website, MLS, and social media platforms, and use them in printed marketing materials such as brochures and promotional collateral related to the specific property or project for which they were created.

This license does not grant unlimited, perpetual, or unrestricted use.

2. Ownership

All images remain the sole property of Edwin Figueroa Photography. You are granted a limited license to use the images, but this does not transfer ownership or copyright of the images to you.

3. Resale and Distribution

Images may not be resold, sublicensed, assigned, transferred, or distributed to third parties without prior written permission from Edwin Figueroa Photography.

This includes, but is not limited to, providing the images to other realtors, homeowners, builders, stagers, media outlets, or any third party for separate marketing purposes without prior approval and/or compensation.

4. Prohibited Use

5. Image Alteration and Modification
